Foreword

THE FORMER edition of this history, which was published in 1897 has served its purpose for one generation, and has now outlived its usefulness and is found wanting. In the meantime the first generation of the family in America has altogether passed away, and many have been added by birth and marriage. New contacts have been made with the old country, where records have been searched to the time of the Thirty Years War, thus making this volume cover a period of more than three hundred years. We believe that we have as full and as complete and as accurate a family history as can be found anywhere. Nevertheless we cherish the hope that the work will not be stayed here, but that a permanent organization of the family will be maintained, and that history will continue to be written.

1832—1932

*Just One Hundred Years ago,
O'er the vine-clad hills of Swabia,
Hied our fathers from the homeland,
After studying past and future,
Never to return that way.*

*Georg, as he was nominated,
Early learned the ways of life.
Orphaned early, he was tutored,
Roamed with armies, fought Napoleon;
Gave his best that we might live.*

*Romance!—Yes the word be welcomed—
Ever enters into life.
Gone the early days of childhood,
Into life's wide field they passed,
Now they shared their common fortune
And awaited common woes.*

*Dorothea was his help-mate;
Orphaned early, foster-fathered,
Restless, would we say, was she?
Or divinity had ordered
Tears should melt what was perverse?
Her first off-spring, early taken,
Early taught them to submit,
And to speak their yea and Amen.*

*Both looked backward now and forward,
And they questioned: What of Fate?
Ever wars and ever rumors,
Dare we trust our sons to these?
Even depth of seas they feared not;
Rest they found on Freedom's soil.*

*Seiler, teacher and brush-maker,
Citizen at last was he.
Home established, children nurtured,
Over were their life's main tasks.
Father Time now swayed his sickle.
Evening shades began to fall—
Rest they now in God and peace.*

Ode

(Die Wacht Am Rhein)

From Fatherland to Freedom's soil
O, waft us on ye fates of time
And fill our souls with light divine
To tell of hardships, toil and care.
In Eighteen Thirty-two they came,
O'er ocean's wide and stormy wave;
From Baltimore the way to Reading hiked,
In Oley then a home and friends they found.

(Star Spangled Banner)

On Freedom's Soil now, here they seek not renown,
But peace and contentment and virtue and home-life;
Here they reared their own born, here they plied their own crafts;
Here they walked their own ways, here they prayed their devotions.
Then here may we rest, in this land that is best,
And such may we be as to keep it still free.
O, may we be worthy our forbears' devotion
And hail our Columbia though Swabia's sons!

(America)

Our fathers' God to Thee
Be hearts and voices raised
In thanks and praise.
O, keep thy children still
In all thy ways and will;
May we thy work fulfil
To endless days.

Chapter One

Historical

THE beginning of our written history is steeped in the blood of the thirty years' war. While no great battle was fought in Wuertemberg during that long and terrible conflict, lasting from 1618 to 1648, yet this section of Central Europe formed a bridge over which many opposing hostile forces passed repeatedly, and where all the horrors of war were visited on the populace whether they were participants or not. Men, women and children were most cruelly and shamefully treated, murdered, robbed and driven out, or perished from hunger, disease and exposure. Houses, barns, churches and other public buildings were pillaged, torn down for camp fires, or just wantonly destroyed. In their desperation many inhabitants fled to other parts, most of them never to return. Many families that heretofore had been numerous around these parts disappeared altogether. In Loechgau the heads of families were reduced from 180 to 33. Other places suffered in similar proportions. Some few families survived the terrible ordeal much reduced in numbers, while many new family names appeared after the war. Some came from Tyrol, some from Austria, some from Switzerland, and from the various German states. Tyrol and Austria, and possibly Switzerland furnished some of our ancestral blood. The Weiss family, for instance, is one of the few who survived the ordeal, although at least one of their number—Baltes Weiss—was murdered in 1634 in the plundering of Besigheim. The Narr family came from Tyrol after the close of the war. The Freyberger family came from Austria, evidently also after the war. The Schofer family came, we know not when nor whence, but they were not in Loechgau or Spielberg before 1634 so far as the records show. We will therefore give here the history of our ancestors so far as we have been able to gather the facts from original records, giving English words here, and then in the outline of ancestors give the original as nearly as possible the way we got it.

1. Jacob Weiss and wife Margaretha were of a numerous family by that name before and during the Thirty Years' War, who did not become extinct because of the horrors. Their son, Hans Jacob Weiss, born on the 30th day of August, 1650, was married on the 18th day of July, 1675, to Anna Christina Stumpf, daughter of an apothecary in Bietigheim. Their daughter, Maria Margaretha Weiss, became the wife of Hans Michel Narr. (See below, paragraph II.)

II. Oswald Narr came from Tyrol. When, we do not know. But his son, Hans Narr, a mason by trade married Margaretha (—) in 1674. Their son, Hans Michel Narr, also a mason by trade, and a Rathsverwandter, or Counsellor, married Maria Margaretha Weiss, mentioned above (Paragraph I). Their daughter, Maria Margaretha Narr, became the wife of Johan Wilhelm Freyberger (see below, paragraph III).

III. Sebastian Freyberger I and wife Appolonia (—) came from Austria, also at some unknown date after the close of the war. In the death records he is mentioned as an aged christian citizen and baker who for the sake of religion and faith moved from Austria into this beloved dukedom, Wirtemberg. Sebastian Freyberger I died on the 9th day of March, 1698, at the age of 75 years. He must therefore have been born early in 1623 or possibly in 1622. This is our earliest definite date. His wife, Appolonia, died on the 24th day of October, 1713, at the age of 78 years. Their son, Sebastian Freyberger II, also a baker, was born on the 21st day of January, 1669. He married Maria Magdalena (—) and died on the 8th day of June, 1711. Their son Johan Wilhelm Freyberger, also a baker and Gerichtsverandter, or Justice, was born on the 9th day of November, 1698. He married Maria Margaretha Narr (see above, paragraph II) on the 9th day of July, 1720. He died in 1735. Johan Sebastian Freyberger, son of the last preceding was born on the 29th day of March, 1725. He was likewise a baker by trade, and married Maria Subim. He died on the 9th day of April, 1800. Their daughter Elisabetha Freyberger, born in Loechgau, on the 25th day of April, 1765, became the wife of Ferdinand Christian Schofer. From this time on the story of the Schofer Family is connected with this place. She died in Loechgau on the 23rd day of February, 1806. So much for the side streams that flowed into our veins to modify the Schofer blood.

IV. We now come to the Main Stream, or direct line of descent. The first name we meet is that of Johan Martin Schofer I and wife, Barbara (—), who were born we know not when or where. During a period of 50 years he is variously and frequently mentioned as father, and was the father of Hans Martin Schofer. This H. M. S. was a Kuefer (Cooper) in Spielberg, being born somewhere, about 1653, and died on the 21st day of September, 1693—aged 40 years. His wife was Ana Barbara (—). Their son, Johan Martin Schofer II, was born in Spielberg on the 31st day of March, 1679. He married Ana Margaretha Hans, from Frickenhausen on the 28th day of November, 1702. Their son Johan Georg Schofer I was born in Spielberg on the 1st day of December, 1718, and married Ana Maria Hut of Weiler, near Schandorf on the 11th day of October, 1741. Their son Johan Georg Schofer II, farmer and vineyardist in Spielberg was born in Weiler about 1740. He was married in Oelbron, Tuesday before Exaudi, 1761, to Dorothea Margaretha Veltius. Their son Ferdinand Christian Schofer, vineyardist in Loechgau, was born in Spielberg, near Brackenheim, on the 20th day of March, 1767, married Elisabetha Freyberger (see above, paragraph III) in 1790, and died in Loechgau on the 3rd day of October, 1800. His wife also died there on the 23rd day of February, 1806. To this union were born two sons: Johan Georg Schofer III, and Johan Conrad Schofer. The first of these two is the one whom we know as the sire of the Johan Georg Schofer Family in America.

V. Yet another stream of ancestry must be considered, and to us in America it is the most important tributary. This we will call the Baeder Stream. In its waters we all have been bathed, for Johan Georg Schofer III married Regine Dorothea Baeder on the 8th day of May 1821, and came to America in 1832. The ancestry of Regine Dorothea Baeder is as follows: The records of Michael Bader or Baeder begin in Simozheim where they seem to have lived from about the year 1710 to about 1740. He was a tailor by trade, and his wife's name was Sophia. Their son, Johann or Hans Michael Baeder, Schneider (tailor), born on the 27th day of September, 1715, moved about 1737 from Simozheim near Calw (Schwarzwald), to Bentelsbach near Waiblingen, and later to Fellbach near Cannstatt. He was married on the 16th day of November, 1734 to Christine Dorothea, daughter of Johann Georg Strasser, citizen in Beutelsbach, and for many years Corporal in the Cavalry of the Royal Guard. His son Johan Georg Baeder I was born on the 19th day of July, 1737, and died on the 8th day of January, 1815—aged 77 and one half years. He married on the 10th day of February, 1767 Christina Barbara Kreder, who was born on the 7th day of January, 1738, a daughter of Johann Ulrich Kreder and wife Anna Maria Bechtle. To this Baeder-Kreder couple four children were born, namely:

1. Margarete Barbara Baeder, born on the 22nd day of January, 1769. No further records are given of this child.
2. Jacob Friedrich Baeder, described first after this list.
3. Johann Georg Baeder II, described second after this list.
4. Johann Matthaeus Baeder, born on the 9th day of April, 1777. No further records are given of this child.

We are therefore interested directly in the 2nd, and indirectly in the 3rd of these four children.

Jacob Friedrich Baeder, son of Johan Georg Baeder I and wife, Christina Barbara Kreder, was born likely in Cannstatt, where his parents seem to have lived after their marriage, on the 30th day of March, 1772, and died on the 25th day of January, 1806 at less than 34 years of age. He is mentioned as a citizen and vineyardist. His wife was Elisabeth Schwegler, a daughter of Johannes Schwegler and wife Elisabeth Mezger. This Baeder-Schwegler union was blessed with two daughters, namely: Regine Dorothea Baeder, born on the 6th day of March, 1799, who became the wife of Johan Georg Schofer III, and Regine Katharina Baeder, born on the 14th day of June, 1804 who became the wife of somebody in Spielberg. After the death of Jacob Friedrich Baeder his wife, Elisabeth Schwegler contracted a second marriage with Jacob David Fauser, with whom she had a number of children.

As mentioned above, a brother of Jacob Friedrich Baeder was Johann Georg Baeder II. He was born on the 9th day of April, 1775. His wife was Regine Dorothea Hoeschele, born on the 23rd day of March, 1777. Of them two children are recorded: Elisabeth Dorothea Baeder, born in 1802 and Johann Georg Baeder III, born in 1813. This family came to North America in 1818.

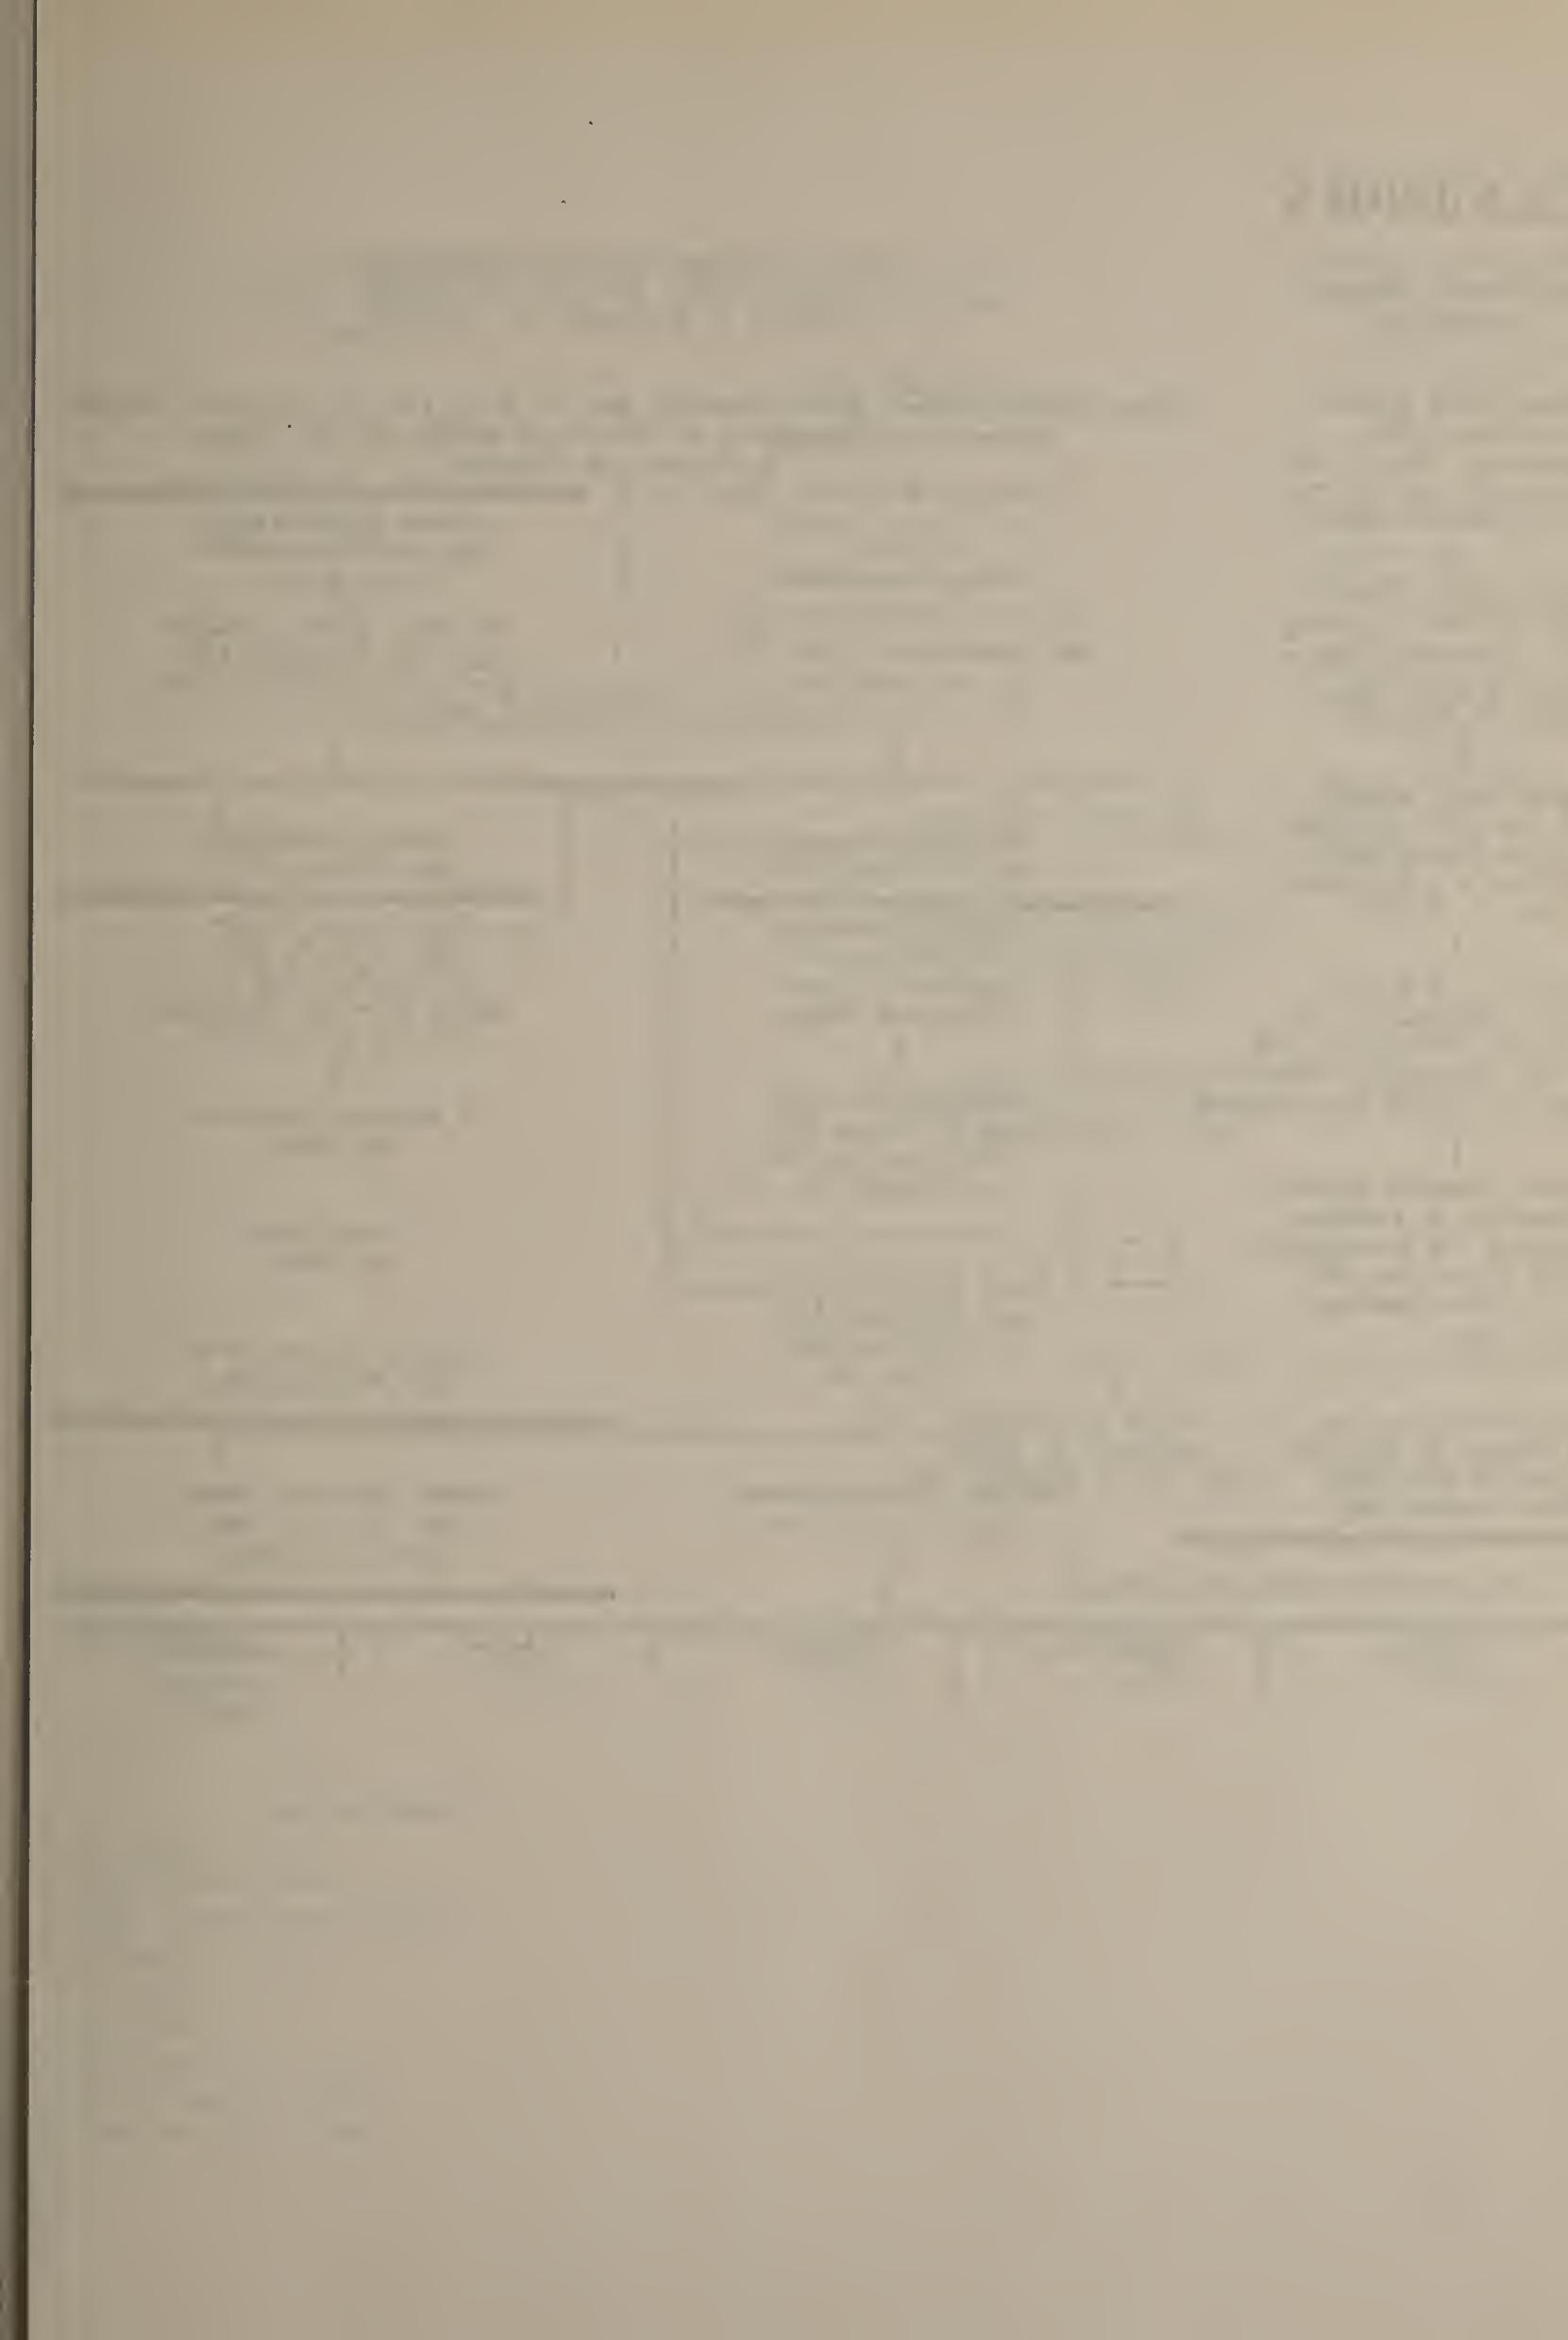

VI. If we can now imagine these various streams of ancestry inverted and can fancy them the roots of a vast family tree we will find the stem to consist of Johan Georg Schofer III and wife, Regine Dorothea Baeder, who in the summer of 1832 came to America with five children. The writer presumes that this change was not momentarily decided upon, but deliberately contemplated. Experience in the army during the Napoleonic wars, and a desire to get away from the militarism of Europe for the benefit of their children, coupled with the fact that they had acquaintances in this country, all would indicate that the plans for the change were carefully laid. Having therefore disposed of most of their personal property, and having on the 10th of May received permission to sever their connection with the Fatherland, they bade farewell to relatives, friends and neighbors, and the scenes of former days, and set out for scenes of new experiences and activities, and to lay the foundations for the welfare of future generations. They moved down the Rhine to Rotterdam where they took passage on an ocean-going vessel. While we have no absolutely certain data as to name of ship, name of captain, date of sailing, and date of landing, yet what information we have so far been able to get from officials in Washington and Amsterdam, would lead us to surmise that they sailed on the brig "Crown Princes" (perhaps should be Princess),—Master, J. Heyn, or Hahn, which arrived in Baltimore from Rotterdam on August 6, 1832. From actual records we gather the following schedule of their route of travel: Besigheim, May 10; Stuttgart, May 14; Coblenz, May 26; Rotterdam, June 1 and June 7. Then the application for citizenship in 1841 states that they were in this country since August 3, 1832. It is possible that the vessel had to serve three days of quarantine before it was allowed to dock, or land its passengers. No lists of passengers were kept at the ports of entrance at that time. From Baltimore they journeyed over land to Reading, crossing the Susquehanna River at Columbia, Penna. The journey was partly on foot and partly on a wagon which, being on its way from Baltimore to Lancaster, took them as far as Reading. Here a friend by the name of Neifert met them and brought them to Oley Township, where they found their first home in this country. At this time the oldest of their 5 children was 9 years of age and the youngest 1 year. On their arrival they started housekeeping in the school house at the Oley Church in Oley Township, Berks County, Penna., where they lived till the following spring. They then moved to Bloch's Hill where they lived in a house owned by Daniel Hilbert, one year, and in Pike Township they tenanted a house and lot owned by Samuel Lobach for 3 years. Thence they moved to a small lot owned by Jonathan Grim, where they lived for 8 years until they moved to District Township, in 1845, and bought a small farm from John Haak, about 1 mile east of Landis Store. The children hired out at an early age and settled in different localities. Frederick in the fall of 1843 went to Lancaster County where he worked in a mill at Blue Ball till the following spring. His brother John also came to Blue Ball in the spring of 1844, and worked on a farm at the same place for 9 months. Frederick then rented a mill at Beartown for 1 year. In the spring of 1845 he, accompanied by Benneville Moser, went to Franklin County, where they worked in a mill till the following autumn. They then set out for the state of Iowa and settled in the little town of Rockingham near the city of Davenport. Frederick later moved back to Illinois, living in and around Moline and Rock Island. John for some years conducted a mill in Greenwich Township, and later what is still known as Schofer's Hotel in Maxatawny Township. Caroline married Obadiah Romig and for many years they conducted the Continental Hotel in Reading. Henry for many years conducted the old Schofer bakery on North 8th Street, Reading. Catharine married Henry Diener, became a widow early in life, raised her children at Stony Creek Mills, and died in Reading at a ripe old age. Salome, the first of the children born in this country, married Benneville Adam, lived at St. Lawrence, and died in Reading at the age of 93, the highest age recorded in this history. William lived on a small farm east of Reading, and, after the death of his wife, worked in the bakery of his brother and sons until the day of his death. James bought the old Schofer homestead in District Township where 9 of his children were born, and in 1883 moved on a farm near East Greenville, Montgomery County. Elisabeth married David Diener, a brother of Henry Diener, and also of Mrs. James Schofer, lived mostly in Pike Township, and died in Boyertown February 5, 1931. With the death of this last born passed the first generation of the family in America. Some time after the home was sold to James the parents moved into a portion of the farmhouse of George Haak above Landis Store, where the father died. The mother then again lived in the old home with the son, and in the spring of 1883 accompanied him to Montgomery County, but in the fall of the same year moved to her daughter Catharine at Stony Creek Mills, where she died.

"Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations; ask thy father, and he will show thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee."

VII. Instead of placing in this volume a short statement acknowledging help from various sources and persons, we believe it will be of interest to the family rather to have here a statement of the fact that we have made some very valuable contacts with the old country. Through the kind courtesy of pastor G. Hoffman in Loechgau, and Superintendent Kuebler, and Statistician, Professor E. Pfleiderer in Cannstatt and pastor R. Held in Simozheim we have been enabled to enlarge very much our former store of information of ancestry in which respect our former edition always seemed very deficient. Also through the kind courtesy of Charles Allen Schofer (E-5-6), who in the summer of 1931 toured Europe, we have a list of names. But in only one case can we find the name exactly identical with ours. The others all spell it S-C-H-O-E-F-E-R. We have therefore selected so far only the name of Dr. Gustav Schofer in Vienna, Austria. Correspondence with him reveals the fact that after Poland had become disintegrated because of discord in its royal family, and had been parcelled out between Russia, Germany and Austria, Galicia which was Austria's share had become partly depopulated. To recolonize these parts the Emperor of Austria, Kaiser Joseph II (1780-1790) invited German settlers, especially farmers and tradesmen to migrate thither. This invitation was accepted, along with other Swabians (Wuertembergers) from the neighborhood of Karlsruhe by Johann Wilhelm Schofer, a boettcher (cooper) by trade. He seems to have been the great-great-grandfather of Dr. Gustav Schofer, but a good deal of searching and investigation is still needed before a reliable presentation of the matter is possible, and before we can prove a direct relationship with this family. Dr. Gustav Schofer feels certain that the names Schofer and Schaefer are identical because in the Swabian dialect a "herd schaf" is a "herd schof" (flock of sheep). A Schaefer or a Schofer therefore is a sheep-man. So far however we have found none of them mentioned as shepherds.

VIII. Finally, we have no clue whereby we can connect up at this time with the Schoefers or Schoeffers which seem to be so numerous in some of the old countries. It may be worthwhile to try to find some connection with Peter Schoeffer, who was so prominently connected with the improvement of the art of printing. We present merely as a matter of curiosity the substance of what history records in this respect. Originally printing was done by engraving a plate to cover the whole page of a book. The idea of using individual letter type seems to belong to Johann or Henne Gutenberg. But he seems to have lacked the finances and the mechanical ability. Johann Faust or Fust furnished the former and Peter Schoeffer the latter, and the three in 1450 formed a partnership which lasted only five years. In 1455 therefore Faust prosecuted Gutenberg for money advanced, and Gutenberg withdrew from the firm. Schoeffer married Faust's daughter and continued with him, and after the death of the father-in-law in 1466. Peter Schoeffer was born at Gernsheim near Darmstadt in 1430 and died in 1503. History generally credits him with being the expert engraver and patternmaker of the firm. A monument has been erected to his memory at Gernsheim. Future historians may discover what we never have thought of and succeed where we have failed.

Biographical

JOHAN GEORG SCHOFER III

THE Stammvater (Sire) of the Johan Georg Schofer Family in America, a son of Ferdinand Christian Schofer and wife, Elisabetha Freyberger, was born in Loechgau, Besigheim, in the Kingdom of Wuertemberg, Germany on the 21st day of June, 1793. He was baptized and confirmed in the Evangelical (Lutheran) Church. His sponsors in baptism were Conrad Freyberger and wife. He lost his father when he was seven years of age, and his mother when he was thirteen. He was educated in the schools of Wuertemberg and is said to have been good at figuring. By trade he was a seiler (ropemaker). He was enrolled in the army December 30, 1813, and was dismissed December 30, 1820, having done actual service during the years 1814-1815. He fought in the German army against Napoleon, and was present at the surrender of Paris. One day they fought and in the evening remarked how they would take the city the next day; but in the morning the white flag was up. Here in the trenches, as he later related, they used to stoop down to load their muskets and then stand up to discharge the same. One time when he did not stoop low enough, a bullet from the French ranks struck one of his gold earrings and broke it in two. After this he considered stooping useless and remained standing both to fire and load. The one part of his earring dropped on his hand and the other he removed from his ear and placed both in his pocket. He displayed them later to his children in America, but they have since been lost. From his wife late in life, the writer also learned that one cold winter night he got awake and found himself deeply buried in the snow. After getting up and digging to find that his comrades were still there he lay down again and the rest of the night did not sleep so well. He was dismissed with an honorable discharge having received neither wound nor reprimand. He was married on the 8th day of May, 1821 to Regina Dorothea Baeder (see next sketch) with whom he lived 51 years, 3 months and 13 days. When he came to America he worked at ropemaking, made brushes, and taught subscription school eight terms. He is said to have been the first teacher in the Old School House on the Keim Farm in Oley Township, Berks Co., Penna. (see Frontispiece). They had eleven children, six sons and five daughters. Six of these were born in Loechgau before they came to this country while the other five were all born in Pike Township. He died on the 21st day of August, 1872. Buried in Huff's church cemetery, Hereford Township, Berks Co., Penna. Aged 79-2-0.

P.S.—He was 5 feet, 4 inches tall when measured for army service. When they started for America he is said to have been of normal stature; form of face, normal; complexion, tanned (brownish); hair, black brown; eyebrows, normal; eyes, blue; nose, big; mouth, medium; cheeks, narrow; teeth, good; legs, straight.

REGINA DOROTHEA BAEDER (Schofer)

Wife of Johan Georg Schofer III was a daughter of Jacob Friedrich Baeder and wife, Elisabeth Schwegler. She was born and baptized in Cannstatt on the 6th day of March, 1799. Her sponsors in baptism were Phillip Heinrich Moliton and Regina Catharina Burkhardt and Maria Dorothea Muender. She lost her father before she was 7 years of age, got a stepfather and some half-brothers or sisters, and lost her mother before she was 17. In her old age she recalled the hard lot of her earlier life, how as children they went to school with a boiled potato in their pocket for lunch, and how when she hired out for a living she stood at the wash-tub in winter with icicles frozen on her bare arms. She was confirmed in the Evangelical (Lutheran) church and knew her whole catechism, as well as many scripture passages and hymns by heart even in her old age. She died on the 3rd day of January, 1885, at the home of her daughter Catharina, at Stony Creek Mills and is buried in the Spies Church cemetery east of Reading.

Aged 85-9-28.

P.S.—When she started for America, she is described as of medium size; stature, strong; hair, blond; eyes, blue; nose, (—); mouth, medium; teeth, good; limbs, round.

On the occasion of her marriage, a friend sent her a card of congratulations with the following lines:

“Der Seiler dreht den festen Strick
Und das bringt ihm Gewinn;
Und wirst du seine Seilerin
So lacht dir stets dein Glueck.”

Thus for more than half a century together these lived and labored and sacrificed that future generations might enjoy better things. A great many little things of a private and family nature might be added, but we believe that what is written will be sufficient.

CATHARINA DOROTHEA GOTTLÖEBIN SCHOFER

Daughter of Johan Georg Schofer and wife, Regina Dorothea Baeder, was born in Loechgau, Besigheim, in the Kingdom of Wuertemberg, Germany, on Sunday, the 17th day of February, 1822. She reached the age of 5 months and 25 days, and died of convulsions on Sunday, the 11th day of August, 1822. Because of a custom in many parts of Germany of using burial grounds several times over in the course of a century, all trace of her grave has disappeared.

JACOB FRIEDRICH SCHOFER

Son of Johan Georg Schofer III and wife, Regina Dorothea Baeder, was born in Loechgau, Besigheim, Wuertemberg, Germany, on the 3rd day of August, 1823. He could therefore say that he was exactly 9 years of age when they reached the American shore at Baltimore. He went to school in Germany, and was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran church. When he grew up he learned the milling trade, and in the fall of 1843 went to Lancaster County and worked in a mill until the following spring at Blue Ball. He then rented a mill at Beartown for one year, and in the spring of 1845, accompanied by Benneville Moser went to Franklin County where they worked in a mill until the fall of 1845 when they together set out for the State of Iowa and settled in the little town of Rockingham near the City of Davenport. Frederick later moved back into Illinois and lived in and around Moline and Rock Island. His main occupation was flour milling.

He married on the 18th day of September, 1851 Margaret L. Heck, who was born in Zanesville, Ohio, a daughter of John Heck and wife Sarah.

Margaret L. Heck Schofer died on the 14th day of June, 1874, at the age of 40 or 41 years; and Jacob Frederick Schofer on the 3rd day of September, 1893. Both are buried in the Rock River View Cemetery.

CHRISTOF HEINRICH SCHOFER I

Son of Johan Georg Schofer and wife, Regina Dorothea Baeder, was born in Loechgau, Oberamt Besigheim, Wuertemberg, Germany, on the 18th day of January, 1829. He came to America with the family in 1832, being then in his fourth year. He attended a subscription school about three months and received further instruction at home. When he was twelve years of age he left home and worked on farms at various places until he was nineteen. He then attended catechetical instruction at Huffs Church, and was confirmed in the Lutheran faith by Rev. Isaac Roeller, in the spring of 1848. Immediately after this he began to learn the trade of wood-turning, which occupation he followed five years. He married on the 8th day of December, 1850, Mary Ethelinda Catharine Haak, who was born in Exeter Township, Berks Co., Penna., on the 18th day of October, 1829, a daughter of Lydia Christian. In 1854 they moved to Exeter Township, where he had bought a small farm and saw-mill. After having lived here fourteen years, they moved to Mohrsville, where he kept a hotel one year, and afterwards worked a farm at Mt. Airy in Union Township one year. In the spring of 1870 he sold the farm and moved to Reading, where he worked in a car-shop two years. Meeting here with an accident, he relinquished his work and turned all his attention to the baking, confectionery and catering business which he had previously established with his son Calvin. For a while he carried on this business with the help of his sons only, and did not keep a team; but as the business grew he engaged additional hands and team after team until he had as high as twenty-five horses and employed as many men. Mary Ethelinda Haak Schofer died on the 25th day of February, 1876. In 1906 he turned the business over to his sons, from then on known as Henry Schofer's Sons, Bakers and Caterers, and moved from No. 215 North Eighth Street to No. 1238 Perkiomen Avenue, where he died on the 26th day of December, 1917. Both he and his wife are buried in the Charles Evans Cemetery, Reading.

JAMES SCHOFER

J
JAMES SCHOFER

Son of Johan Georg Schofer and wife, Regina Dorothea Baeder, was born in Pike Township, Berks Co., Penna., on the 15th day of February, 1840. He attended school in District Township about two months, and in Greenwich Township, where he lived with his brother John, about fifty days; and received additional instruction at home. He was confirmed in the Lutheran faith at Huff's Church by Rev. Isaac Roeller, in the spring of 1858. During the summer of the same and two succeeding years he learned the carpenter trade, working, during the winter, at cabinet-making with Jacob Stauffer in Washington Township. He married on the 31st day of May, 1862, by Rev. Gustav Hinterleiter, Catharina M. Diener, who was born in Pike Township, Berks Co., Penna., on the 26th day of November 1836, a daughter of Henry Diener and wife, Esther Motz. This Henry Diener was a son of Johan Heinrich Diener, revolutionary soldier, and grandson of Henrich Gerhard Diener, the sire of the Diener Family in America. This family is three times connected with the Johan Georg Schofer Family by marriage. In the fall of 1862 James was enlisted for the Civil War, to serve in Company H, Regiment 167, of General Gibbs' brigade, being a part of the Army of the Potomac. His division was first stationed at Suffolk, Virginia, where they remained six months. He engaged in one small battle, in which the colonel of his regiment was killed and some others wounded. From here they proceeded to Norfolk, and in through the Peninsula as far as Whitehouse Landing, where he fell sick with typhoid fever and was taken back to Yorktown on a boat. The remainder of the regiment, after having proceeded farther on to Richmond, soon also returned to Yorktown and all were embarked for Washington. Here the regiment, after having been stationed around the city about four weeks, was discharged, and he followed two weeks later. Upon his return he bought The Old Schofer Homestead from his father and took possession of the same in the spring of 1864. The first few years he worked his land by hired help while he was engaged in a mine about one year, and at carpentering. In 1868 he bought some additional adjoining fields from William Miller, but continued to work at carpentering occasionally, and to make furniture and brushes during the winter. For a few years his parents continued to live with them, but about 1867 moved into a part of the farm-house of George Haak a mile or two away. James, the first year after he had taken possession, built a stone wing to the old house (see chapter on the Old Homestead), and later tore down the old part and built another frame addition to what he had built before. In the spring of 1883, having sold this place to Daniel Frey, he moved to near East Greenville, Montgomery County where he had bought a larger farm. Having worked this farm eleven years, he built a home on a lot taken from the same, rented the farm and retired. In the spring of 1813 he sold this home to his son Frank and moved to No. 214 Fourth Street in East Greenville, where he had bought and remodelled a home for a double dwelling, he occupying one side, and sold the other side to his daughter Emma, who rented her side and kept house for him and family. Here Catharina Diener Schofer died on the 17th day of September, 1915, and James Schofer died on the 28th day of April, 1922. Both are buried in St. Mark's Union Cemetery, Pennsburg, Penna.

ELISABETH SCHOFER (Diener)

Daughter of Johan Georg Schofer and wife, Regina Dorothea Baeder, was born in Pike Township, Berks Co., Penna., on the 9th day of October, 1843. She attended a summer school two months, and received parental instruction at home, all of it mostly in German, until she was sixteen years of age. She was confirmed in the Lutheran Church in the spring of 1859. Her early years were spent mostly at home, except that she lived with her sister Catharina, in Pike Township about a year and a half. She married on the 10th day of December, 1864, David M. Diener, who was born in Pike Township, Berks Co., Penna., on the 9th day of April, 1842, a son of Henry Diener and wife, Esther Motz. The following spring they began to farm on the place of Mr. Diener's father, and continued thus five years. Leaving this place they bought an adjoining lot where they lived ten years. They then lived successively near Hill Church one year, in Earl Township one year, in Colebrookdale Township two years, in Hereford Township one year, and then again bought a lot in Pike Township, where they lived until the fall of 1925. They then sold their home and much of their personal effects, and went to live with their daughter Katie in Boyertown. Here David M. Diener died on the 20th day of December, 1927, and Elisabeth, after having enjoyed good health practically all her life, on the 5th day of February, 1931. Both are buried in the Hill Church Cemetery. Thus passed the first generation of two families three times inter-married.

JOHAN CONRAD SCHOFER

Son of Ferdinand Christian Schofer and wife, Elisabetha Freyberger, was born in Loechgau, Besigheim, in the Kingdom of Wuertemberg, Germany, on the 26th day of April, 1797. He was therefore the younger and only brother of Johan Georg Schofer III. He came to America some time in 1831, and was located, as far as reliable information is at hand, in Lancaster County, Penna. He rarely visited his brother in America. His name appears as sponsor on the baptismal certificate of Salome Schofer Adam.

We desire here to record four traditions that have come to us.

First, that he was never married.

Second, that he was married in the old country, and that on the evening of his wedding day his bride took sick and died.

Third, that he was married late in life and had no children.

Fourth, that he was married and had two sons.

Recent search of the records in Loechgau reveals no mention of any marriage there. The record of his leaving for America also mentions no wife or children. Further investigations have so far not been made.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD—ORIGINAL

Chapter Three

The Old Homestead

WHEN our forefathers came to this country, they came not to a wilderness that had to be reclaimed, or to meet savages that had to be subdued; but they found, like the children of Israel, "A land inhabited," and from the beginning dwelt among friendly neighbors. On their arrival tradition tells us they were well supplied with clothing, and kindly neighbors helped them with a big wash. The reader is by this time aware that for nearly 13 years however they were strangers in a strange land, and not until the 9th day of April, 1845 could they say that they had their feet on their own ground. It was on that day that John Hoak (Haag or Hog) and wife acknowledged the deed conveying to George

Diagram of Old Homestead Tracts

Schober (should be Schofer) the premises which he had 10 years before acquired from Dr. August Nosky. This place is located in District Township, Berks County, Penna., about one mile east of Landis Store, on the road to Barto. They were the actual owners of this home just 19 years and 2 days. Comparatively few of our family may be conscious of much of an Old Home Sentiment, for none of the children of the first generation were born here. Neither of the parents died here. Yet it is a fact that when once the children had become established in their own homes and affairs, they of the first generation and many of the second, and even of the third generation visited here very frequently. It was here that on the occasion of a visit of the oldest son, Jacob Frederick, from Moline, Illinois, in January and February of 1880, a reunion of all the living children—then still nine in number—was held with the mother, who after the death of the father in 1872, again made her home with the youngest son, James, for 10 or 11 years more, or until 1883. In the accompanying diagram plot A. represents the original purchase, while plot B. represents a later purchase by James Schofer from William Miller. When this plot A was purchased in 1845, it consisted of approximately 22 acres of ground, of which hardly more than half was under cultivation. The rest consisted of meadow, pasture and woodland. The improvements consisted of a log house on the south side of the road facing east and west, with the gable ends toward the road and south, and no cellar underneath, there being a ground cellar or cave near the centre of what is now the front yard. An inadequate barn stood, we presume, east of the house. The garden was west of the house where it is to this day. Back of the house on the south side stood an outbuilding which served various purposes. Down the lane past the garden and some distance farther west is still to be found the old faithful spring, although the springhouse has long ago disappeared. Of all the buildings the pigstable stood nearest the road.

This property was bought by George Schofer—for so we will call him in this chapter—for 550 dollars. It soon became evident that improvements and changes had to be made. The father built an altogether new barn east of the house and facing west. He also built an addition to the house to make the kitchen, which was in the front, more roomy. The rear had a sitting room in the east corner, and a kammer (a down-stairs sleeping chamber) in the west corner. If the writer's memory serves him rightly, there was no front window down stairs, but against the front wall, which was then of stone, there was a winding stairway starting from the west corner, with a closet underneath, while a fireplace occupied the east corner. The second story had a front window at the head of the stairway.

James bought this place on the 11th day of April, 1864, for 1300 dollars, and soon thereafter built a stone wing on the east side of the house, a little less than a story and a half high and a cellar under this part, thus providing room for a double family. He also built an addition to the barn on the end toward the road for a wagon-shed and straw mow. About the year 1875 he tore down the old log house, raised the stone part to two stories in height, and extended it westward with a frame addition, and cellar under all. He demolished the old ground cellar, and erected a new outbuilding in the rear, which served various purposes, such as workshop, summer kitchen, etc. There was also a bake oven and smokehouse attached to this on its east side. The whole was connected by a covered porch.

In 1883 this home passed out of the Schofer family and was sold to Daniel Frey, who with his daughter and son-in-law, Joseph Reichert, then took possession of the same. Since then we note the following changes: Another new and larger barn, a front porch to the house, which heretofore had not been built, another room added to the rear of the frame part of the house, and all new outbuildings. The well behind the house was the work of James. About the one at the barn we do not know. Some more land was bought on the south side of the original tract by Mr. Reichert. A few pear and apple trees are still landmarks. The Freys and the *Reichert*s have all passed away, but Mr. Reichert's 2nd wife, who had been the widow of Manasseh Kemp, is still living, at the time of this writing, at the age of 77 years, in the old home. Her son, Edwin W. Kemp, by her first husband, and wife, a daughter of Mr. Reichert by his first wife now own the place since April 27, 1921.

Do we regret that The Old Homestead has passed into strange hands? The Schofers are subjects of change and exponents of progress. Show me an adult Schofer who now lives where he was born, or one who died where he started housekeeping. There may be a few of the latter. James frequently visited here late in life, and found genuine pleasure and satisfaction in the fact that not only was the place well kept, but that also improvements, and changes for the better were made from time to time, while within a radius of a mile from the place a half dozen places were deserted. A proposed new state road from Landis Store to Barto now passes the place. The Kemps are hospitable people and seem to deem it an honor and a pleasure to have Schofers visit them amid these scenes of former days.

Since the above was written Mrs. Kemp, Sr., and her son and his wife all died during the year 1933. This may cause another change in the holding of the Old Homestead.

Let us now cast a "longing lingering look" at the Old Home as our forefathers saw it. Through the kind courtesy and patient efforts of Mr. Elwyn F. Ellison of Rock Island, Illinois, aided by the memory of the writer and Mrs. Emma Herbert, we have a very good reproduction of the old house in the natural setting of the present-day photo. The pear tree in the left of this picture bore fruit when our sires lived and visited here. It is an ungrafted tree and still bears heavy crops of small but tasty pears. We had the rare pleasure of tasting them once more in the fall of 1933, the first time in 50 years.—H.M. S.

P.S. The accompanying picture of "The Old Homestead—Modern View" was taken for the writer in September, 1932.

THE OLD HOMESTEAD—MODERN VIEW

Chapter Four Archives

IN the old family chest in which the family brought their personal belongings from Loechgau to Oley are many things of historic interest.

We believe the chest itself to be much more than a hundred years old. Judging from its construction (wooden nails) it may be several hundred years old. There is the watch of Johan Georg Schofer III, which he likely also brought across the sea, and Stark's Daily Handbook which he bought, according to his own inscription, on Dec. 1, 1821, for 1 penny. In this book are recorded the names and date of birth of 8 children, except that in the case of William the name is not stated. There are to be found the original records brought over from the old country with photographic reproductions of most of them. The hand-crank of his rope-machine, and his grain sickle are also there. The original manuscripts of the first and the second edition of this history are deposited there. A number of original birth certificates are on file, together with a number of letters of the Schofer and Diener families. There is a photostat of the signature of Henrich Gerhard Diener when he signed the oath of allegiance to the King of England when he arrived in Philadelphia in 1751. The certificates of service of his two sons, Johan Heinrich and Johan Peter, in the war for independence, and the discharge of James Schofer from the service in the Civil war are on file.

The following letters, most of which are in Rock Island should be carefully preserved: On September 15, 1855, Jacob F. Schofer writes to his wife and children that he arrived that day in Reading, Penna., at about 9 o'clock A. M., and advises them to direct letters to Dale P. O., Berks Co., Penna.

On July 1, 1864, James Schofer writes to J. F. S. a letter in which he talks about the war chiefly.

July 16, 1867, John G. Schofer writes to James Schofer discussing in some detail the proposed moving away of the parents from the old home where double house-keeping was evidently no longer satisfactory. This letter is in the archives.

July 16, 1872, John G. Schofer writes to Jacob F. Schofer informing him of the father's sickness, stating that he had asked for his pastor's service, and that he and the mother had taken communion together. He also urges J. F. S. to write, reminding him that they were both confirmed at the same time, and therefore could not be unmindful of the fourth commandment.

Aug. 21, 1872, J. G. S. to J. F. S. informs him that the father died that morning at 3 o'clock of old age and pneumonia. Funeral would be on Saturday the 24th.

Sept. 24, 1872, J. G. S. to J. F. S. gives an account of the appraisement of the father's estate amounting to $1827.80.

June 5, 1873, J. G. S. to J. F. S. reports in the matter of sale, funeral expenses, tombstone and interest on note of J. F. S. to the father.

Feb. 20, 1880, Henry Schofer to J. F. S. discusses the trip.

Feb. 24, 1880, James Schofer to J. F. S. acknowledges receipt of letter on the 15th, glad to note safe return.

Feb. 25, 1880, William Schofer to J. F. S. notes that J. F. S. returned Friday before. (H. M. S.—The 19th fell on a Saturday and therefore the Friday here mentioned was the 11th).

March 7, 1880, J. F. S. to James, replies to a letter received, stating mother was not very well. Reports having received a letter from Henry. His son James A. is sick with slow typhoid fever, bedfast three weeks and very weak.—This letter is in the archives.

April 9, 1885, John G. Schofer to J. F. S. reports: "Mother died of old age and heavy cold attended with cough and expectoration. Seemed like consumption. Expired in a smothering coughing spell."

June 21, 1881, John G. Schofer to J. F. S. discusses settling up of estate, mentioning a note with interest amounting to more than a share of the inheritance. Asks for signing of release.

Dec. 18, 1885, John G. Schofer to J. F. S. urges signing of release. Note of $100 with interest amounts to $200. Share of the other heirs is $167.30.

April 6, 1886, John G. Schofer to J. F. S. speaks of visit home from Lancaster Co., before haying in 1844.

June 28, 1891, John G. Schofer to J. F. S. offers to send copy of father's will.

Jan. 3, 1894. Last but not least, and, to the writer the most important. Emerson Schofer writes to H. M. Schofer acknowledging a letter from H. M. S. to J. F. S. of the date of July 23, 1883. This letter was discovered among others in the trunk of J. F. S. after his death, and gave the family a clue how to get into touch with the folks back east. This letter cannot now be found, but reference is made in Emerson's letter to a desire expressed in the letter of the writer to gather data for a family history. This was more than a half century ago, and he a boy fourteen years of age. Many things happened after that. But after many years of hard work on the farm, and in school, and in the ministry we are now endeavoring to "Hallow the fiftieth year" as well as celebrate the One Hundredth Anniversary. This letter is also in the archives.

Lest we forget, it is to be noted that in the archives are letters from Loechgau, Cannstatt, Simozheim, Vienna, Ziegelhausen, and such others as may be added through further correspondence. On the extracts from original church records which these letters conveyed a good part of this history is based. The historical chapter is largely based on them, and the outline of ancestors is constructed from them almost one hundred per cent.

The will of Johan Georg Schofer III and his citizenship record may be consulted in the Court House in Reading, Penna. The illustration at the head of this chapter is the penknife which Johan Georg Schofer III used to mend quill pens when teaching school. Recently also his discharge from the German army of Wuertemberg has been deposited in the archives.

Organization

IN the matter of organization our cousins around Moline and Rock Island, Illinois took the lead. Their first get-together was held at Emerson Schofer's place about the year 1902. Their present organization according to their records dates from August 26, 1923, when the following officers were elected:

President, Frances Schofer Ellison; Secretary, Fannie Swanson Peterson; Treasurer, Ida D. Swander Schofer; Press, Ida D. Swander Schofer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Fannie Swanson Peterson, Chairman; Ida M. Barrett Schofer, Maud Gamble Schofer, Dora Cederburg Schofer.

Reunions have since then been held regularly the last Sunday in August unless changed for reason.

The present officers (1933) are as follows:

President, Frank Schofer; Vice-President, Raymond D. Schofer; Secretary and Treasurer, John Gamble, Sr.

ENTERTAINMENT, George Hardin

PRESS, Olive Schofer Gamble

REFRESHMENTS, Frances Schofer Ellison, Nellie Ryan Peterson, Ida Gitt Hardin, Lillian Schofer, Roine Rosman Schofer, Dora Cederburg Schofer.

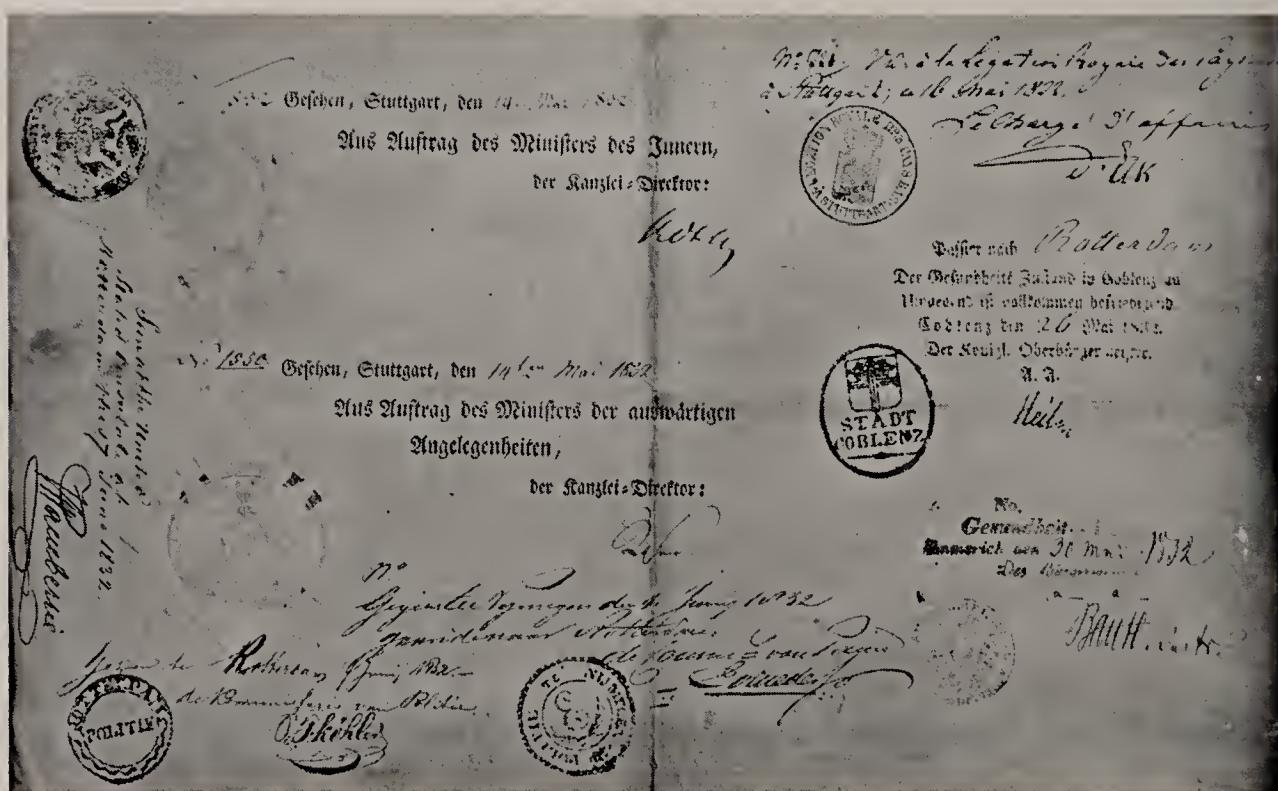

Here in Pennsylvania we had three reunions around the turn of the century, of which no records were kept and which did not result in a definite organization. The present organization was tentatively formed by a small gathering at Huff's Church in Berks County, where grandfather Schofer is buried, on Labor Day, Sept. 1, 1930, by electing the following officers:

President, Jacob J. Schofer; Vice-President, George S. Diener; Secretary, Hannah K. Kulp Schofer; Treasurer, Robert Raymond Schofer; Historian, Henry Morris Schofer.

These officers have been continued since. The reunions in 1931-1933 were held at Jacob J. Schofer's bungalow at Topton, Pa. At the reunion in 1933 it was decided to continue this arrangement until further notice, including the time which is Labor Day.
